year. However, we discussed that a 6% increase in math proficiency was a lofty goal. We discussed how to differentiate and align professional learning to support the purposeful delivery of enVisions lessons.

Reviewed behavior data and noted that the number of behavior events exceeded the desired reduction; however, we identified root causes and obstacles. Mr. Granger went over the behavior data and the plans to address the concerns we faced this year. The SOT team feels it is a worthy goal to maintain a 15% reduction for next year. Attendance was addressed, and we continue to explore ways to improve our attendance.
