2.2 Next Steps

2.2. a. Budget allocations

3.0 Public Comment Period

3.1 Parent was concerned that the students have to continue to bring their electronic devices back and forth to school, and the weight that the students have in the backpack.

3.2 One parent was surprised that the MAP data is better than the pre-pandemic levels and asked why the math scores were still low which was addressed.

3.3 Attendance concerns were brought up that reflected the COVID protocols and the process that parents have to take when they need to call into the hotline.

A teacher wanted to know if there was a different attendance code that can be added to the students that are in the waiting process until they are cleared to return to the school.

3.4 One parent expressed their frustration that the process takes too long and that they have waited on the phone for long periods of time only to be kicked off. The parent did state that when they were able to send an email mail there was a next morning response.
